Race troubles broke out again at Eldorado, Ill., when the house of John Bean, a colored farmer, was attacked by a mob. A volley of shots was fired into the house, though a number of militiamen were on the premises at the time. The farmer's barn was burned and two horses and 1,000 pounds of tobacco were lost.

Sir James Crichton Browne, M. D., in emphasizing the necessity for reform in the British Army sanitary organizations, claims that enteric fever during the South African war reduced the fighting force by 70,000 to 80,000 men. He claimed that this extended the war tax six months and cost from $300,000,000 to $350,000,000.

KINGSVILLE.

Mrs. Sophia Davis, of Pineville, arrived Wednesday to visit her brothers, W. L. and J. M. McCarty.

W. L. McCarty has sustained quite a loss by the delay of a car load of cane and will bring suit against the railroad company.

We are confident that every good democrat here regrets being denied the pleasure of voting for Editor W. P. Walton for railroad commissioner in this district.

Rev. Thompson, of the Methodist church, is thinking of locating in Indiana, but his congregation is very much in hopes he will continue to preach for them another year.

Maek Williams has bought of Logan Walls a house and lot for $125. James McCarty bought of Daniel Heister a small farm near the trestle, a portion of which Mr. McCarty has sold to the R. R. company, on which they intend to have a water tank.

The protracted meeting conducted by Elds. Berry and Brooks, of Lexington, closed Wednesday night with 38 additions to the church, "backsliders" included. Quite a number from other churches united with the Christian church during this meeting, which was certainly a most successful one. The good work might have gone on indefinitely had not the ministers been compelled to return to Lexington to enter school.

Mrs. A. P. Huns, sister, Miss Lena Reynolds, and Mr. L. D. Reynolds, of Stanford, were guests of the family of Postmaster J. L. Johnson. Lough Evans, of Junction City, was a guest at Hotel Pennybacker, Sunday. Papc Woodford was over from Moreland Monday. Maek Williams, of Burgin, was here Saturday. Dr. J. L. McCarty, who recently enlisted in the U. S. Navy as surgeon dentist, is the guest of relatives here. Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor has returned from a visit to her son, Harve Taylor, in Louisville. Mrs. J. A. Wright, of Lexington, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. W. R. Cundiff. Mrs. Sebastian Chevalotte is very sick with tonsillitis. Her husband was called to her bedside Thursday. Master Mike McCarty is quite ill with symptoms of typhoid fever. Master Will McCarty has been very ill, but is better now. D. M. Creighton is suffering from hay fever—probably owing to the immense quantities of hay raised here.

CHURCH MATTERS.

There are 666 churches in Chicago. Transylvania Presbytery convenes at the Second Presbyterian church at Richmond today.

Rev. C. A. Strickland, of Alabama, has accepted a call to the Presbyterian church at Springfield at a salary of $1,200 a year.

Odd Fellows' Hall is nightly comfortably filled to hear "Bro" Harnee, who sits in a chair and only rises for dismissal, says the Paris Kentuckian.

A large German Catholic colony will be established shortly in Stearns county, Minn., by the Order of St. Benedict, which has just purchased a tract of 100,000 acres.

Rev. D. J. Ross preached his initial sermon at the Methodist church Sunday morning and those who heard it say it was a splendid effort. Rev. W. E. Arnold preached at his new charge at Versailles.

MATRIMONIAL.

Everett Baughman and Miss Jennie West, of Burnside, eloped to Huntsville, Tenn., and were married.

Harry Roswell, a youth of 17, and Miss Rose Madden, a maiden of 48, were married at Henderson.

A double wedding, in which all the contracting parties were named Votaw, and all distantly related to each other, took place at Mackville, Washington county.

Capt. Harry F. Huebler, a wealthy young business man of Philadelphia, and Miss Calla Beatty Hicke, the beautiful daughter of the late Judge Sim Hicke, of Somerset, were married at the Gibson Hotel, Cincinnati.

At Bowling Green, Circuit Judge Settle decided the contention over the lease of the Mammoth Cave Hotel. He holds that the bid of W. S. Miller was not filed within the limit specified for receiving bids and cannot be considered. He holds that Dr. W. W. Renshaw may take the lease providing he executes proper bond and agrees not to install H. C. Gantner as manager—at least not until the litigation between Gantner and the trustees of the cave is settled.

"Mother" Jones, known as the agitator among miners, is missing, and her daughter in New York City has appealed to the police at Parkersburg to assist in locating her.

The total exports of the United States for the eight months ending August 31 were $312,885,198 against $329,341 for the same period in 1901.

LANCASTER.

Ex-Sheriff Sanders shipped 77 225-pound hogs to the city recently.

Mrs. Mary Fox will rebuild on the site of the old Franklin Institute.

Eld. Moore closed his meeting Sunday night with about 12 accessions.

A. R. Deeny and daughter, Mrs. Duocan, have taken rooms at the graded school building.

Mrs. Mary Fox has rented the "Best Hotel" and will occupy it until the construction of her dwelling.

The meeting of the building committee of the Christian church has been changed to Friday owing to the absence of several members.

Hert, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Embry, is very low of spinal meningitis. The physicians regard his recovery as doubtful.

There is to be a marriage of a Garrard farmer and a Lincoln county lady this week, but we withhold names until the license is issued.

J. L. McCarty sold to W. R. Cook a bunch of cattle at $4 25. Geo. Leavell sold a mule colt for $50. Price Bros. sold 30 hogs to Lawson & Fox at 10c.

Mr. Arch Walker, of Paint Lick, suffering from a cold, mistook a dose of Smith's Liniment for a cough medicine, and was made very sick for a short time.

Scarlet fever still prevails in the county and six deaths have occurred in the Stone section. Mr. Claude, who only a week ago had a child to die from the malady, lost another Saturday.

Mrs. Lizzie Rice, of Hedgeville, was thrown from her buggy and narrowly escaped death. She was driving through a gate when her buggy was overturned and she suffered either a fracture or dislocation of her hip.

A delegation of Lancastrians left for Louisville this morning to present their claims for the Southern railway to the Commercial Club. Lancaster citizens feel that Louisville men will hold to their promise to see the Southern extended through Garrard.

M. F. West has returned to Washington City. Mrs. Scrivener, of Cynthiana, is visiting the family of R. H. Bateson. Mrs. Percy Nolan and little son, of Washington, are visiting Mr. M. D. Hughes and family. Mrs. Simp Eikin left Monday for Atlanta. She was accompanied by her brother, Capt. Sam Duncan, who will spend the winter in the South. Miss Sallie Myers leaves soon to visit in Lebanon. Keatie Anderson has returned from Indianapolis and will enter Central University. Miss Maud Miller left Monday for her home in Lexington. Mr. R. E. Hughes arrived Sunday from Louisville to visit relatives. Theodore Wintersmith, of Louisville, has joined his wife at W. R. Cook's. Mr. E. C. Hopper, secretary of the Latonk Racing Club, is here on a visit. Miss Sue Sublette, of Lexington, has been visiting Mrs. R. E. McRoberts. Mr. S. C. Denny and wife are at home after a trip to Atlantic City. H. M. Hallon and family are in Cincinnati. Miss Lenna Hobbs and brother, Joe, have gone to join their mother in New Mexico. Miss Nannie Goodloe has gone to Talladega, Ala., to take a position as teacher. J. C. Thompson, Miss Thompson and R. L. Jennings and wife, of Paint Lick, are attending the Cincinnati Fall Festival. Rufus Moss and family will leave soon for Oklahoma. John Kinnaid, of Columbus, Ohio, is visiting his brother, W. H. Kinnaid. Wm. Collier, of Illinois, is the guest of relatives here.

HUBBLE.

L. P. Weaver is putting a new roof on his dwelling.

Mrs. M. B. Eubanks and children took in the Somerset fair.

Don't forget to attend J. S. and E. T. Moore's sale Thursday, 18th.

James McKechnie and A. P. Sloan have bought them a corn harvester.

Eubanks & Hubble are arranging to show their fine jack and mule at the Louisville State fair.

Eld. B. J. Pinkerton, of Stanford, will fill Bro. Moore's pulpit here Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

A fine girl has arrived at J. C. Eubanks'. Be of good cheer, Crit, we can't always have things like we want them.

Agents interested in carrying the mail have been around securing names that are in favor of a free delivery system. As we understand it it will only be delivered once a day along the pike and we are to have one mail a day instead of two, as we now have it. Each family to purchase a box, putting same up at his gate, or at the mouth of their lane or county road at the pike. What accommodations will be given to the renter or hired hand, who lives in the cabin along the river and creeks who do not get out very often for their mail, we have not learned yet. But hope that when all the country postoffices are done away with, that something may be given in their stead that all the people can use as well or better by furnishing them mail as often and as convenient as at present.

MR. M. F. ELKIN.

A splendid citizen, who, with his family, left last week to make his home in Lexington.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

A Middlesboro man captured a giant bull frog with two heads and five legs. H. T. Gray has resigned as individual book-keeper in the Bank of Perryville.

Miss Gussie Roberts will lift the veil from the handsome Confederate shaft at Harrodsburg today.

The Farmers National Bank of Danville, gave $500 to the right-of-way fund of the Southern railway.

The sensational case in which John A. Logan, a Richmond liveryman, was charged with burning his barn, was ended in a verdict of not guilty.

On the docket of the Rockcastle circuit court which began yesterday there are 100 equity cases, 23 common law actions, 13 criminal prosecutions and 67 misdemeanors.

The Citizens' National Bank of Monticello, has been authorized to begin business with a capital of $25,000. A Fairchild will be president and Chase McCounaghy cashier.

We don't particularly object to Ed Walton's habit of crediting items taken from this paper to the London Kentuckian since we succeeded it, but when the Paris Kentuckian Citizen copies a couple of items and credits them to the Mountain Echo, we kick, and would like to kick the man who did it—Mountain Democrat.

The National Association of Mexican war veterans will hold their annual meeting at Paris, Ky., Sept. 25. All survivors of the Mexican war, their widows and children are invited to be present. Address Col. J. C. Craddock, Paris, or let Vice President W. S. McClesney, Lexington, Ky.

Uncle Ben Robinson is proud of this Garrard county democrat; he tells the News that a few days since he was asked the name of Mrs. Robert Harding, and upon being informed, he said he had twice at his house, a boy and a girl, and he intended to name one for Mr. Harding and one for his wife. The gentleman is Mr. George Huffman and he is a mighty good democrat—Danville News.

Some money was cleared by the fair company, but not a dollar will go into the pockets of any member of the organization, but will be spent on the grounds. More buildings will be erected, among which will be a large floral hall, and the ladies can rest assured that in the next premium list the proper space will be set aside for the exhibits that are pleasing to them—Somerset Republican.

Marital infidelities almost caused the death of an infant six weeks old at Danville. George Gregory, colored, attacked his wife, and she attempted to run away from him, but caught her foot in a door sill and fell down the steps toward a well. She was carrying the infant, which bounced into the well and fell 20 feet into the water below. The woman continued to flee, but Gregory stopped and fished the infant out.

At McKee, Jackson county, a special jury was impaneled to try J. E. Holcomb, James Brunell and William Lejeer on a charge of incendiarism. Lejeer had set fire to the store of A. J. Smith, near Maulden and Holcomb had paid them $15 and three plots of whiskey to do the job. The three were held over to the circuit court in bonds of $1,000 each. Holcomb had been considered one of the leading merchants of Jackson county. Smith, whose store was burned, was a competitor.

DEVoured BY WORMS.

Children often cry, not from pain, but from hunger, although fed abundantly. The entire trouble arises from leucism, their food is not assimilated, but devoured by worms. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge will cause them to cease crying and begin to thrive at once, very much to the surprise and joy of the mother. 25c at Penny's Drug Store.

Fugitive Taylor is still wedded to his old habit of reaching for his hip pocket. But so long as he doesn't sneak into a building and assassinate the street car conductor we suppose he will continue to be coddled by Durbin and others of his ilk.—Lexington Democrat.

H. H. HENNINGER

Of Wayne County, is a candidate for State Treasurer, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

ROBERT HARDING,

CHARLES A. HARDIN,

For Congress,

G. G. GILBERT

Of Shelby.

THE deserters from the Confederate army to the Federal army, to whom Congress voted pensions, will be disappointed over a decision of the commissioner of pensions relating to the payment of pensions. According to this ruling these pensions will be paid for the time the claims are filed after July 1, 1902, and not from the time when they were first filed. Some of these claims have been on file in the pension office for years and the decision of the commissioner will save the government between $5,000,000 and $10,000,000 in arrearages if his decision is not overturned. The final determination of the question involves millions of dollars, as there are 20,000 claims of this kind and the pensions when allowed will range from $5 to $12 a month. If the matter is decided in favor of the deserters, each will receive several hundred dollars, but if it is adverse to them, they will be paid only a few dollars, which latter, let us hope will be the case.

THE republicans of North Carolina are making a vigorous effort to secure the three western Congress districts of the State, which are in the mountains and traditionally inclined to the republican party. Under the former apportionment of the State, North Carolina had nine representatives in Congress and of these seven are democrats and two republicans. Under the new apportionment North Carolina gets an additional member and the republicans expect to increase their representation from two to three. The democrats are on their two curves, however, and think they will reduce the republican representation to one.

THE most important features of the platform of the democracy of New Hampshire are in the resolutions demanding unconditional repeal of duties in favor of all trust-made articles, opposition to all trusts, monopolies, railroad pools and syndicates; reduction of duties on necessities of living; opposition to ship subsidies; substantial reciprocity with Cuba and free trade with the new as well as the old territories of the United States. This is not only in accordance with sound democratic principles and policy, but it is comprehensive enough for one campaign.

THE Louisville Post's cartoon of a graveyard full of politicians who have been run over and killed by the "machine" is rather amusing. The three graves most conspicuous are those of Messrs. Henry Watterson, W. P. Walton and Matt O'Doherty. Dick Knott's grave appears in the back ground, but the old "flip-over" has been dead so long his tombstone has literally disintegrated.

SENATOR PLATT says that "personally" he thinks Roosevelt deserves the nomination for president. This is believed to indicate that the State convention will endorse President Roosevelt's administration, and say that he deserves to be the candidate of the party in 1904.

It is a mistaken idea to suppose that Morgan owes all the railroads in the country. According to statistics there are now in this country 2,050 separate railway companies which have not been merged. However, Morgan may get them later on.

A MARTINSVILLE, IND., preacher, who has confessed that he has been stealing everything that he could lay his hands on, has retired from the ministry. Such a man ought to easily secure a lucrative job with the trusts.

POLITICAL.

The Provincial Council of Havana has appealed to Congress to remove the military restriction against cock-fighting.

Robert Barrows was nominated by the democrats of the First Tennessee district against Congressman Brownlow.

Republicans of the Second district will nominate R. W. Slack for Congress at the convention at Henderson today.

Secretary Shaw announces that he has made arrangements to release $1,000,000 of the treasury holdings to relieve the money market and will also anticipate the October interest, which amounts to $4,200,000. The secretary asserts that he sees no evidence of a currency famine and no cause for alarm at all.

The Glasgow Times devotes two pages of its last issue to expressions from itself and other papers in favor of a State primary. The primary is coming, we are sure, but not yet awhile. The time is hardly ripe for it, but the quickest and surest way to secure it is to keep pegging away like Editor Richardson is doing.—Lexington Democrat.

Editor Walton, of the Lexington Democrat, has wisely quit the railroad commissioner's race, confessing, after his frank fashion, that he hasn't the making of a candidate in him and declaring that he will never again ask his party for political position. This well when so excellent a journalistic shoemaker thus resolves to stick to his last. For such as he, "the place of honor is a private station."—Louisville Times.

The democrats of Wisconsin, seem to have denounced the primary system in order to please the corporation republicans, and it is to be presumed that they avoided the money question in order to please the banking republicans and the question of imperialism in order to please the imperialistic republicans. Why didn't they avoid the tariff question also in order to please the republican manufacturers?—Bryan's Commoner.

HIATT.—Mr. James H. Hiatt, aged 67, died yesterday about 1 o'clock at his home on the Dudderar's Mill pike of malarial coma. He had been ill only a few days and was up for a short while Sunday evening, walking around his room. He was taken seriously ill during the night and became unconscious. He was a member of the Methodist church and was a conscientious, christian gentleman. He leaves a wife and two daughters, Miss Mamie Hiatt and Mrs. Emmett Traylor, to mourn an affectionate husband and father. The funeral services will be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Methodist church by Rev. W. E. Arnold and the burial will take place in Buffalo Cemetery.

A GOOD crowd attended circuit court at Mt. Vernon yesterday, but business generally was quiet—the patent medicine man and street fakir even failing to make money. Court opened in the morning and the grand jury was instructed and a few cases were tried. In the afternoon Judge T. Z. Morrow made a happy speech announcing his candidacy for re-election as circuit judge. The "old judge," as he is affectionately called, is strong all over his district, but especially so in Rockcastle, and the consensus of opinion there is that he will have no opposition. Mr. W. Lawson Sumrall, republican nominee for Congress, also spoke for a few moments. He went to Mt. Vernon to meet the "dear people" and was surprised to find that he was billed to speak.

IN THE SOUTHERN END.—If you want to see lots of business done in a quiet, business-like way take a trip to the Southern End of Lincoln and spend a while at Kingsville and Waynesburg. At the former place, W. L. McCarty runs a big store as well as the Kings Mountain Canning factory; J. M. McCarty does a flourishing general merchandise business; G. A. Walter deals largely in general merchandise, lumber, etc.; J. W. Thompson sells drugs and fancy groceries; Dan Heister keeps a restaurant and Mrs. Bettie Penny-baker runs one of the best country hotels in the State. The merchants are all on the best of terms and you seldom hear of "cutting and slashing" of prices, but all sell at a reasonable profit, which satisfies both buyer and seller. Just now the Kings Mountain Canning factory is about the busiest place in the county. Mr. McCarty was compelled to wait almost a week on a car load of cans, which finally arrived Friday night, and Saturday morning he started up with over 1,500 bushels of tomatoes in his yards and some 25 or 30 wagons hauling the luscious vegetable in. He had 125 hands hard at work when an I. J. representative called and was turning out about 1,500 three-pound cans of tomatoes an hour, he has over 100,000 cans ready for shipment and it would take a train of 10 cars if all were hauled away at once. He has sold only one car load, for which he got 85c per dozen. He pays 15c per bushel for the tomatoes and as a bushel will make 14 cans an idea of Mr. McCarty's profit can be easily obtained. This year he is saving the offal and already has about 250 barrels, which he will dispose of to catsup manufacturers at a good price. At Waynesburg the I. J. man found L. G. Gooch & Sons, E. B. Caldwell & Sons and Bryant & Gooch all doing a good business, with splendid stocks for the buyers to select from. Mr. L. G. Gooch is one of the pioneer merchants of his section as well as one of Lincoln county's richest men. Mr. Caldwell is not a merchant of long standing, but he has proven a most successful one. Bud Gooch, of Bryant & Gooch, has business to spare. Besides watching after the store he runs a hotel and livery stable and has a blacksmith shop until a few weeks ago. He manages to watch and after all of his iron, however, and none have been burned yet. The Macabee Hall at Waynesburg is a most creditable building and the members of that order are justly proud of it. It cost about $1,500 and it won't be long before it is all paid for. We learned with regret of the death of Mr. Cicero Gooch's wife, which occurred some weeks ago. He has been peculiarly unfortunate, having buried three wives and is yet only a little over 40 years old. Surely his cup of sorrow has been filled to overflowing. Mr. Clark Reynolds, one of the oldest and clearest of men in the Southern End, continues ill and all hopes of his recovery have been abandoned. Masonic lodge met Saturday afternoon with a good attendance. There is considerable sickness around Waynesburg at present and Drs. A. K. Caldwell and Bryant are kept continuously on the go. There is a general wish in the Southern End that the committee of this judicial district will rescind its action and call a primary for the naming of candidates for circuit judge and Commonwealth's attorney.

MR. JAS. T. MENEFEE, formerly of this place, had a narrow escape in a wreck near Montgomery, Ala., Friday. The train on which he is baggage master, ran into a switch and a disastrous wreck ensued. THERE are a number of cases of small pox of a mild form in the colored settlement of Boneville. The sufferers hardly ever have to take to their beds and they have dubbed it "elephant's itch." A darkey named Simpson was in town Saturday afternoon with a well developed case. Hadn't the authorities better look into the matter and stop the disease before it spreads over the county.

AT Junction City the home of Mrs. Hollander, an eccentric religious fanatic and fortune teller, was burned. Mrs. Hollander's form of religion was peculiar, being something between that of the Protestant and Catholic religions. Seven candles were kept burning by this eccentric old woman continually and the falling over of one of these candles started the blaze that destroyed the house. The house itself was known as one of the curiosities of Kentucky. Mrs. Hollander built the entire structure with her own hands.

It is an old saying that to see one minstrel show is to see them all, but the Who What When Minstrels, that opened for a week's stay at the Lyceum last night certainly disproved of the above saying. From the rise to the fall of the curtain the large audience was treated to a succession of surprises and were unstinted in their praise. In the olio were seen some of the most distinct hits ever seen in minstrelsy. The musical team of Goldsmith and Hoppe was one of the best ever seen in this city, while "Le Bar" certainly proved him self a master of ambidexterity. Others deserving of notice were Weaver and Donna, Frosto and Wardo, Hogan Bros. and Sherwood and Fox. As a whole, the show was the best seen in St. Paul in many years.—St. Paul Pioneer Press. At Walton's Opera House to-night.
